

Music Medicine Institute presents:

Music at the Library

A FREE event for children of all ages that offers participants an opportunity to learn and play a variety of instruments

As part of its continuing efforts to serve the needs of Savannah-area military and civilian families, the Music Medicine Institute and Live Oak Public Libraries are collaborating to offer a series of FREE events in recognition of April's nationwide celebration of the Month of the Military Child.

The Music Medicine Institute is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) corporation for education, treatment and research in the interface between music and medicine.
